RACING WITH THE WIND
AUGUST 28th

After the destruction of Hurricane Bob the town is resuming a normal look. Anyone looking out to the harbor on Wednesday saw the white sails of the Mattapoisett Yacht Club racing the final contest of the season. The contesting group of racing craft was smaller by about half but, still, it was a remarkable comeback for only 10 days and a brave sight for passersby. The air of the town, even on the waterfront, was superheated that day but the air on the water was an excellent velocity for racing - steady and brisk. It was an exhilarating sail for the 9 boats sailing the triangular course. The winner was Helios, skippered by Charles Prefontaine. That morning Helios had been resting at the top of Shipyard Park next to Romeo's. This winner won on corrected time of 32:12.

Second to cross the finish line was Sele, skippered by Spark, 35:16; third, Tall Girl, Wingate skipper, 35:48; fourth, Heron,

Federal Emergency Relief

APPROVED FOR MATTAPOISETT
MATTAPOISETT SELECTMEN'S MEETING
AUGUST 27, 1991-by VIRGINIA MORGAN

President George Bush has declared six counties in Massachusetts major disaster areas as a result of damage by Hurricane Bob. The counties designated will be eligible for emergency assistance from various federal agencies that would be coordinated by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).

Selectman Paul E. Lambalot attended on Tuesday an emergency meeting called by Lt. Governor Paul Cellucci and was informed Plymouth County was one of six counties eligible for disaster relief. The other counties are Barnstable, Bristol, Essex, Middlesex and Dukes. The only two areas not determined as yet because of incomplete information are Worcester and Nantucket Counties. Mr. Lambalot reported agriculture and small business damage determination is still pending and that private property should be covered by insurance.

Relief funds will be used to repair roads, bridges, public facilities, and loss of employment.

Also attending the press conference in Boston on Tuesday was New England Regional Director of FEMA Richard Strome and A. David Rodham, director of the Massachusetts Emergency Management Agency. Mr. Strome said, "Anyone who suffered damages or losses due to the hurricane should contact the state office of Emergency Management so that we can make an accurate evaluation."

Losses to personal property are still being evaluated, he noted.

Mr. Lambalot reported with the Presidential disaster declaration, communities in those counties (Plymouth-Mattapoisett) are eligible for 75 percent matching federal aid to remove debris and cover costs of emergency services related to the storm.

The relief program also provides for the special Disaster Unemployment Assistance program, making unemployment benefits available to certain individuals, such as the self-employed, who were out of work and otherwise would not qualify for unemployment and also restaurants or other businesses that were not operating due to loss of power.

Mr. Lambalot noted loss of shellfish beds would also be considered for emergency relief. He added that Taylor Seafood of Mattapoisett, Inc. who received approvel from selectmen to grow and operate a 100 acre scallop farm in waters off Mattapoisett Neck weathered the hurricane and markers stayed in place.

Selectmen Chairman John N. DeCosta said he has offered the use of an office at town hall to FEMA, if needed, to process claims. He noted Executive Secretary Carol Adams is requesting all town departments to keep accurate records on expenses and hiring for applying for federal funds.

Board of Health member John C. Bowman informed selectmen the state Department of Environmental Protection were at the landfill Tuesday to observe the burning allowed on a temporary emergency basis. The state people said "we are going a good job", said Mr. Bowman. Their advice was to burn in the morning because of high humidity in the afternoon. Selectman Daniel O. Mahoney advised not changing the burning schedule until a written order comes from the state.

Barstow Wharf

Bob" taught us many lessons at the shore. ıes on stilts survived. Houses with solid ɜs and breakaway fronts and backs sur- ed. Wharves with concrete tops sur- ed while those with blacktop were peeled : bananas and stripped of fill. Look at se photos of Long Wharf. The patches concrete by Highway Surveyor Wesley vman and crew are the only remaining wharf face intact. If the whole surface had been crete, damage would have been minimal. ɜn the blacktop was peeled then the con- te was undermined.

'he Barstow Wharf, above, was intact ɜr the storm and it was blacktop, but k closely. The blacktop covers a solid ck concrete top. This was the wharf ɜre stone blocks weighing tons were rolled feet away so the force of the storm alled that of the long wharf. The dif- ɜnce was concrete.

In the two views of Long Wharf above only the cement patches put in by the Mattapoisett Highway Department in 1989 are intact. DCJ photos

ANOTHER LESSON OF BOB - Thanks to the people who fought to save the landfill from the takeover by SEMASS, the twin mountains of foliage fallen from the storm had a place to be gathered and burned. What would have happened if there were no landfill?
DCJ Photo

Mr. Bowman also said the state advised separating brush from logs, but this is hard to get people to do; they just bring in truck-loads of stuff to the landfill, said Mr. Bowman.

In other business, Selectmen:

AUTHORIZED Town Accountant Joseph A. Bolton to process the bills relating to the hurricane in excess of budgeted appropriations. However, according to state statute, said Selectman Mahoney, "before approval is made we need the dollar amount in excess of the budget to give this information to the state Department of Revenue."

The state statute under Tax limit in Cities and department appropriations allows "no department financed by municipal revenue or in whole or in part by taxation, shall incur a liability in excess of the appropriation, EXCEPT in cases of major dis-APPOINTED Ronald Scott to serve as Consultant to represent the Conservation Commission to provide assistance relating to the hurricane. He will be available in the town hall 8 a.m. to 12 noon daily.

Although Mr. Scott is chairman of the Conservation Commission, there is no conflict of interest if selectmen make the appointment and not the commission, explained Mr. Mahoney. No wage rate has been set at this time. Mr. Mahoney noted Mr. Scott has a nice way about him and has been very thoughtful and informative with the public.

AWARDED A CONTRACT to AGM Marine Contractors, Inc. of Sandwich in the amount of $239,000, as low bidder to make repairs to Middle Wharf. This repair work has no connection to the damage done by the hurricane; this work was scheduled a year ago. Work is scheduled to begin the early part of November and has to be completed by April 1992 because of migrating fish.

Mr. Mahoney explained the low bidder was $70,000 less than the high bid of $313,320. Other bids were $249,779 and $269,690. He noted the AGM Marine Contractors, Inc. has a very good reputation and supplied us with a financial statement and they are stable and will purchase a performance bond. The loan for the work will be repaid from the Waterfront Enterprise Fund.

Selectmen voted to appoint John D. DeRugeris, volunteer marine consultant for the town, as an overseer to the project to supervise performance; salary to be agreed upon later.

WERE INFORMED by Executive Secretary Carol Adams that Resource Officer/ Shellfish Constable Brian Nunes has leased a truck at a cost of $39. per day, as his 1985 truck needs a transmission and other work done, at a cost of over $3,000. Mr. Nunes has been using his personal truck, which now needs repair.

Selectmen agreed Mrs. Adams and Chairman DeCosta should check other rentals for a 30-day rate. Mr. Mahoney advised not to put any money into the truck but to look for a replacement.

The following letter was sent to selectmen from George S. Newman of Point Connett:

"My wife and I attended the meeting held on August 24 to discuss the situation as a result of Hurricane Bob.

"Given the vast devastation that resulted from the hurricane, the huge turnout of people was no surprise. Mr. John DeCosta, the chairman of the Board of Selectmen, did a fantastic job in conducting this meeting. With all the concerns of everyone in attendance one might have feared that the meeting would be a wild and disorderly event with little or no chance for order and the dissemination of information. Mr. DeCosta, with a very firm, but low-keyed manner, kept everything under complete control thereby enabling all the participants, residents, and town officials to be heard.

To all our Friends and Customers,

Thanks to all of you for the coffee and donuts we received in the early hours of "Hurricane Bob", filling out claims by candlelight.

By now, all people who have reported claims should have been seen by an adjuster, or at least have an appointment with one.

If you have not heard from an adjuster, please let us know. Anyone who has not yet reported their claims should do so now.

We take pride in helping Mattapoisett return to "pre Hurricane Bob status" as soon as possible.

spector, for his answers and patience in responding to the many questions. I was very impressed with his knowledge and ability to respond.

"Selectman Daniel Mahoney displayed the kind of honesty very lacking today in many communities when he forthrightly stated unpleasant facts. Not many officials would have had the integrity to stand before a very large and concerned group and give them information that was not what they wanted to hear. (At Tuesday's selectmen's meeting, Mahoney explained the information on tax relief came from the Board of Assessors; I was just the messenger). And the representatives of the Board of Health and Conservation and all others who spoke were excellent.

"Selectman Paul Lambalot was very cooperative in responding to many questions after the meeting ended and he certainly showed great concern for the town and its residents.

"I would be remiss in not commenting on the Police Department under Chief Moran. I am not given to be a backslapper on behalf of policemen, but I must tell you - throughout this hurricane, every police officer that I saw was a model of the role of a lawman. They carried out their duties

All too often elected officials and employees can be very officious and bureaucratic. I didn't detect one scintilla of that attitude in Mattapoisett elders.

"Rather, I noticed something that is very lacking, in my opinion, in this country and that is a sense of community. A sense that we are a community and we do care about

The "Spray", owned by Paul Zychowicz of Mattapoisett, was left high and dry on the shore of Camp Massasoit. Paul said he was in Martha's Vineyard trying to get back to New Bedford inside the hurricane dike before the storm hit but couldn't make it. He moored in Molly's Cove, off the camp area, with two storm moorings. "They should have held, but I think another boat crossed the line and dragged the 'Spray' ashore", said Paul. The "Spray", 55-foot wooden boat, was removed the Friday after the storm. Paul said it will be put back into business taking out passengers as soon as possible. As it didn't have much damage, the bottom got a new coat of paint.

POLICE CHIEF HAPPY FOR GUARD'S HELP FOLLOWING HURRICANE BOB

Mattapoisett Police Chief James F. Moran said Friday he would like to respond to negative comments made by other towns about the Massachusetts National Guard's assistance during the aftermath of Hurricane Bob.

"We had six guardsmen from the Yankee Division working on the three shifts helping to relieve my officers and the state police. They were located at the wharf and at various check points in the beach areas. They were polite, efficient and they were certainly a big help to this department."

The chief said they were given sleeping quarters on the second floor of the police station. "As far as eating was concerned, they either ate on their own or were fed at the fire station emergency set-up handled by the Firefighters' Auxiliary."

Chief Moran added, "We were so pleased with their assistance, we gave them MATTAPOISETT baseball caps."

Phillip Dixon Injured

REMAINS IN A COMA

A 10-year old boy was critically injured Sunday, August 25th, at 1 p.m. on River Road when he was hit by a car while riding his bicycle, said Mattapoisett Police Chief James F. Moran. His 8 year old sister, who was riding her bicycle, was not hurt but was frightened and ran home to tell her mother.

Phillip Dixon, son of Robert and Jadine Dixon, suffered extensive injuries, including a number of broken bones and head injuries and was treated by a Mattapoisett ambulance crew and paramedics from St. Luke's Hospital in New Bedford. He was then transported to New Bedford Municipal Airport from which he was evacuated by helicopter to New England Medical Center in Boston, said the chief.

As of Friday, August 30th, Chief Moran said he had spoken to the family who said Phillip is still in a coma, but that they are optimistic his condition will improve.

Chief Moran said the driver of the car, Wallace Underwood of Mattapoisett, was traveling north on River Road when he crossed the center line and hit the boy. The impact occurred approximately 500 feet north of the stone bridge, and the car continued for approximately 300 feet up the road before a collapsed front wheel forced Mr. Underwood to stop. The chief said, "There was no visibility problem, the road was clear of debris, and this is a straight section of road. No breathalyzer test was administered because there were no signs of alcohol being involved."

Mr. Underwood was charged with leaving the scene of an accident after knowingly causing personal injury and operating to endanger.

Immediately following the accident Mattapoisett police took Mr. Underwood by cruiser to the Crisis Center in New Bedford, then to St. Luke's Hospital in New Bedford for observation. He was then moved to Pembroke Hospital, a semi-voluntary psychiatric hospital. Later he was transferred to Jordan Hospital for observation after developing what was described as a quick heart beat.

After an investigation found the child was deliberately struck, Mr. Underwood was arraigned at Jordan Hospital in Plymouth Tuesday, August 27th, on charges of assault with intent to kill in connection with the hit and run incident, Chief Moran said. District Court Judge Byron Martin ordered Mr. Underwood held on $10 million surety or 1 million cash bail.

The arrest was made by Mattapoisett Detective Mary Lyons and Clerk of Court Darrell Manchester on a warrant issued by Judge Byron Martin. From Jordan Hospital Mr. Underwood was taken to Bridgewater State Hospital for observation and later transferred to Lemuel Shattuck Hospital in Boston, where he is at present.

Chief Moran said all the evidence at this time shows that Mr. Underwood did deliberately run into the boy. He said statements gathered by police led to that conclusion, but he declined to say why the child was run down. There was no indication that Mr. Underwood knew the boy.

The walk is open to the public with a fee of $3. for Lloyd Center members, $5. for non-members, and $1. for children under 12. Dennis Vieira, the volunteer curator of the Lloyd Center's shell collection, has much experience with shells of this area. Specializing in miniature shells, Dennis is quite knowledgeable about the lives of the creatures who once lived in the empty shells we now find on the beach.

ternoon band concert conducted by John Pandolfi, 1:00 to 3:00 p.m.

This popular event boasts well over 150 beautiful vintage and classic automobiles, plus a large spectator audience. Although the basic structure of the show has remained the same over the yeara, a major change will be made this year in balloting for the winners of the seven classes. Car Show participants - the owners of the cars entered in the show - will vote for the cars they judge to be the best in each of the classes A through E(2), and first and second prizes will be awarded in each class. Visitors and spectators will vote for the one car they deem to be the best in the show, and a People's Choice Award will be presented to its owner. All cars will be eligible for this award.

Cars will be on display from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. Balloting will be held until 2:00 p.m. A parade of the winners will be led through the grounds by one of the cars from the Heritage Plantation collection beginning at 3:00 p.m.

Cars in all classes must be either well restored or in excellent original condition to be admitted to the show area and must enter under its own power (no trailering).

pink satin gowns, with an off-the-shoulder neckline, elbow length bell shaped sleeves and a fitted lightly beaded bodice. They wore pink pearl necklaces and earrings and carried bouquets of cut pink tulips.

Both the mother of the bride and groom wore ivory beaded tea length dresses. Both the maternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. John De Andrade of Mattapoisett, and the maternal grandmother of the groom, Mrs. Hector Sansoucy of South Dartmouth, wore mauve tea length dresses.

The groom and his ushers wore black tails, while the fathers and grandfathers of the bride and groom wore traditional tuxedos.

The couple spent their honeymoon on Marco Island, FL and Disneyworld.

They reside in South Carver.

Highland Music at Heritage

The Royal Highland Fusiliers and the Rankin Family will perform Monday, September 16th, at 2:00 p.m. at Heritage Plantation. Both groups will be coming from the 16th annual New Hampshire Highland Games at Loon Mountain.

The Pipes and Drums of The Royal Highland Fusiliers will perform at the Military Parade Field. The Regiment was formed in 1959 by the amalgamation of the Royal Scots Fusiliers and the Highland Light Infantry. The Colonel in Chief of the regiment is Her Royal Highness, The Princess Margaret. This fact, and the Regiment's historic association with Glasgow and Ayrshire, is acknowledged in the Regiment's secondary title, "Princess Margaret's Own Glasgow and Ayrshire Regiment".

The Regiment is the only Regiment in the British Army to carry three colours (flags) on parade. These are the Queen's Colour, the Assaye Colour and the Regimental Colour.

In recent years the Battalion has served in Singapore, Belize, Canada, Northern Ireland, West Germany and Kenya. The Pipes and Drums have also toured Scandinavia, Corsica, Turkey, Spain, Argentina and Japan as well as the United States. During the Gulf War the Pipes and Drums were deployed as the Battalion Machine Gun Platoon.

After the Pipes and Drums finish its performance, the Rankin Family, Mabou, Capre Breton will begin its show at 2:45 p.m. on the outdoor concert green.

The Rankin Family is one of the most popular groups to emerge on the Maritime music scene in years. Whether performing at church halls in and around their home, at the Lunenburg Folk Festival or the Rebecca Cohn Auditorium in Halifax, the reaction has been the same: enthusiastic response to the crystal clear voices and superb harmonies of Raylene, Cookie and Heather, the outstanding piano and fiddle playing of John Morris and the singing and songwriting talents of Jimmy.

In November of 1989 The Rankin Family released their first album: The Rankin Family, and in November of 1990 released a second album entitled "Fare Thee Well Love". Both recorded at Inception Sound in Toronto, they feature cuts that demonstrate the versatility and talent of this dynamic group; from haunting Gaelic ballads to rollicking success socially and financially, according to Hugh O'Brien of East Wareham, director of fund-raising. The affair, chaired for Friends of Hospice by Jean Briggs of Marion, netted more than $3000 to help the Wareham-based agency care for the terminally ill.

Major prizes of Titleist and Foot-Joy golf equipment donated by the Titleist division of the Acushnet Company were awarded to: Blake Wilson of Marion, men's low gross with a stunning 75; Bob Yeaton of Mattapoisett, and Dan Lufkin of Marion, men's low net; Jean Jones of Marion, women's low gross; Dianne Anderson of Wareham, women's low net; Todd Byrne of Bellingham, and Jean Briggs of Marion, longest drive; and John Houghton of North Falmouth, closest to the pin. A 1992 Buick offered by Gateway Buick of Wareham for a hole-in-one on the first hole went unclaimed, probably the only disappointment of the day, according to Mr. O'Brien.

Sponsors of the tournament included Wareham Feed, Superior Fuel, Bayside Office Supplies, A.D. Makepeace, G.H. Dunn Insurance, Wareham Surgical Associates, Jay's Drug Stores, Hayden Manufacturing, Cranberry Growers service and Forestview Nursing Home, all of Wareham; Converse Realty, Marion; Mahoney's Building Supplies, Mattapoisett, Robert Sherman Contractor, Rochester; Hotz Real Estate, Lakeville; New
